Yesterday I attended UNW LLP's annual away day at Ramside Hall and what a day to remember!!

I am honoured to have received the Sam Johnson Memorial Award 2022!

This award is very special to us all after losing Sam late last year, I am humbled to be compared to someone so great.

How lovely to have people back into the office for a Charity Briefing for the first time in two and half years! Many thanks to our guest speakers Catherine Marchant, Colette Harrison, Peter Nailon and Dan Britton (WEAR RIVERS TRUST) for delivering a very helpful seminar on practical Trustee recruitment. #charity

This week, we are welcoming our new Corporate Tax Consultant, Ricky Lai.

Ricky moved to the UK with his family from Hong Kong last year and loves football, the beach and walking/hiking.

On joining the firm Ricky said: "The initial induction is brilliant and has been of great assistance in helping me to settle well. I believe that I will develop greatly in this friendly firm."

Welcome to UNW, Ricky!

We are always looking to strengthen our teams, so if you or anyone you know want to work at a great place, full of great people, please get in touch with us via recruitment@unw.co.uk.

Well a great evening for us 3 lucky ladies last night at The PA Hub Newcastle launch - networking, listening to a very inspirational chat with Sophie Chapman (Steven Bartlett's assistant), meeting fellow PA's and meeting possible suppliers. We only went and won prizes in the raffle!!! All 3 of us. I won first class rail tickets from LNER not sure where to go, will have to look at hotels to say in and have a weekend away. #PAhub #LNER

No better combination than a bit of sunshine and a BBQ!

We've had such a treat here today at the UNW LLP offices with a visit from Flying Pigz BBQ at lunchtime.

Thank you to the firm for the gesture, and to Laura Wallace for organising.

Yesterday was our Firm Away Day at Ramside Hall. We had great fun with activities including axe throwing, golf driving range and laser clay pigeon shooting.

We also had the reveal of our new branding, and both Richard Turnbull and Daniel Ridley challenged me to find a suit matching the new colours for UNW LLP.

As you can see from the second pic, I was only too eager to accept the challenge!

Great day at the ICAEW Northern Society Graduation & Prizegiving Ceremony at the weekend receiving an award for being in the Northern Society Professional Stage Order of Merit in 2021 🏆. I am looking forward to sitting the final three Advanced Level exams this year and hopefully becoming exam qualified! #icaew #aca #prizewinner

A big thank you to Paul Callaghan, CBE, DL, FRSA of the Sunderland Music, Arts and Culture Trust and all the team at The Fire Station for a great evening on Saturday with the Royal Northern Sinfonia. A very special venue indeed and a fantastic, relaxed atmosphere. We get to work with some amazing clients here at UNW LLP!

Huge congratulations to UNW LLP's charity of the year Maggie's Newcastle which celebrated its ninth birthday yesterday!

Thank you for the cake delivery Marissa Magee 🍰

Built in 2013, the Newcastle centre is designed to be a warm and welcoming space with qualified experts on hand to offer free practical, emotional, and social support to people affected by any form of cancer across the North East and Cumbria.

We have been able to witness first-hand the amazing support and advice they have provided some of our colleagues and their families in the past.

Lots more fundraising activities planned at UNW in the coming months as we continue our support.

Another first - first in person charity seminar since you know what AND first time representing Rockets Community Foundation in public.

Thanks to Anne Hallowell, Maxine Fox and the UNW LLP team for hosting an interesting event about trustee recruitment. It's not as scary as you think!
